EXPRESS NEAR DERAILMENT.

New Haven Passengers Badly Scared When Piston Rod Breaks. NEW HAVEN, Peb, 23 - While swinging through Yudesville, just south of Meri-den, to-night train No. 53 on the New Haven railroad, an express running from Boston to New York and due in New York at 5 o'clock, had a narrow escape

The locomotive's piston rod broke and before the engineer could stop the train it had bumped along for nearly a quarter of a mile, ripping up the ties an roadbed. Some women passengers were thrown into hysteries, while all the others on board were badly frightened. The engine stayed on the rails and after forme delay the train was taken back to Meriden, where another engine was substituted. The trip to New York was resumed about two hours behind the schedule time. The New Haven officials at once began an investigation Widow, Tired of Life, is a Suicide.
